

26th World Scout Jamboree in Poland 2027

Hampshire County Scouts and
Isle of Wight Scouts

The World Scout Jamboree is the largest Scouting event in the world, held every four years, and around 30,000 scouts from over 220 countries attend. The next Jamboree is in the school summer holidays in 2027, in Gdansk, Poland.

We have been assigned 4 units, which is space for 144 Scouts and Explorers and 16 leaders.

Applications are now open to Scouts and Explorers to join the Hampshire and Isle of Wight units to the World Scout Jamboree.

Applicants need to be born between 31st July 2009 and 30th July 2013 to attend (aged about 11yrs 2m to 15yrs 2m now).

To apply, please visit the website for more information (including a Q&A) <https://international.hampshirescouts.org.uk/2025/06/04/ws-j-participant-applications/>

Applications can be through an online form, or on a paper form. Video entries can also be made. All of the information is on the website.

Closing Date : 10pm Saturday 19th July 25
